Vienna

Exploring Habsburg Wonders in Winter

6 DAYS From £3,345pp SAVE £250pp Departing December

From its ancient origins as a castrum and canaba in the Roman period, Vienna grew to dizzying heights after becoming the capital of the Holy Roman Empire in the 15th century, developing into one of the most important imperial centres of Europe. Situated on both the Danube and the Wien rivers, the city developed enormously when it became the capital of the Habsburg empire in the end of the 17th century and particularly in the 18th century when a multiplicity of grand palaces was constructed. The city was further aggrandized in the 19th century when Franz Josef demolished the city's fortifications and developed the awe inspiring Ringstrasse which encircles the city, uniting a series of grandiose buildings, including the Rathaus and the Kunsthistorisches Museum.

This tour will guide you through this masterpiece of Baroque architecture, exploring the gems that Habsburg wealth was responsible for generating and collecting. Apart from the sumptuous palaces, we explore the city's many world class museums, starting with the Kunsthistorisches Museum and the Naturhistorisches Museum but also including lesser-known jewels, such as the Secession Building and the Albertina Museum. We will also be considering the city's interesting ancient period. We will be doing all of this in the festive season as there is, perhaps, no better time to visit this city of music and culture than when it is bedecked in its traditional Christmas markets and a possible layering of snow.

- Tour Highlights
- Explore the many artistic masterpieces in the Kunsthistorisches Museum
 - Gaze at Klimt's Kiss and his other works of art in the stupendous Schloss Belvedere Palace
 - Examine the wonderful treasures excavated in Ephesus, including the Parthian Monument

Morocco: Tangier to Marrakesh

Imperial cities and Lords of the Atlas

10 DAYS From £3,700pp SAVE £250pp Departing December

Morocco is known as the 'Maghreb el-Aqsa' the land of the further west, encircled by three great seas and tucked in at the corner of Africa. Despite the attentions of Phoenician traders, Roman colonists, Arab settlers and incomers from southern Spain, it has retained its identity over the centuries and in places there is an almost eerie sense of time travelling, so little seems to have changed over the years. This is a country full of colour – pink hued palaces in Marrakesh, cool blues in Chefchaouen, the white peaks of the Atlas, silvery olive groves and honey coloured dunes. And whilst the main focus of our tour is the Islamic heritage of Morocco, it may be the exotic nature of this country which competes for your attention and memories.

Tour Highlights

- Explore the remarkable Roman site of Volubilis, ancient capital of Mauretania Tingitania
