Where History Comes Alive in 2026

Our new tours span millennia - from humanity's earliest art to Europe's great medieval powers

As we look ahead to another year of extraordinary travel, I'm delighted to introduce our new tours for 2026 - a collection spanning a remarkable sweep of human history, from the oldest oracle sites of ancient Greece to the courts of medieval Europe. They exemplify what makes Andante unique: taking you beyond the guidebook into the landscapes and stories that have shaped our world, with expert guidance and those moments when history truly comes alive.

For those drawn to humanity's earliest past, we offer two new tours: Rock Art & Human Origins, led by Dr Paul Bahn with special access to prehistoric caves in France and Northern Spain; and The Archaeology of Anglesey, exploring Neolithic tombs, Bronze Age standing stones and Iron Age hillforts. Our refreshed Classical Greece itinerary stretches from the Parthenon to Mystras and, from our base in Ioannina, we visit Dodona, Kassope, Nikopolis and Arta. Roman enthusiasts can join the Grand Tour of Roman Britain or return to Campania on Beyond Pompeii, uncovering the villas and historic hubs that once made Pozzuoli a 'second Rome'.

The Middle Ages come alive on Viking Homelands, coinciding with the Trelleborg Viking Festival, while Relaxed Kyrenia reveals northern Cyprus and Warsaw to Danzig explores the world of the Teutonic Knights. We also highlight beloved long-running programmes, from Pompeii, Herculaneum & Classical Campania to Carthage & Roman Tunisia.

I hope you find a journey that speaks to your passion - Classical antiquity, the Viking Age, or medieval history.

Here's to all of our new adventures in 2026.

Nowhere in the world gives deeper insight into Roman life than the dramatic seaside towns of Pompeii and Herculaneum. Before the cataclysmic eruption of Vesuvius, these were thriving, lively seaside towns. Pompeii was a trading town, equipped with bars, shops and brothels, while neighbouring Herculaneum was an affluent and elegant town. All this came to an abrupt halt, one autumnal day in AD 79, when Mount Vesuvius - which had done little more than rumble for years - erupted with incredible force.

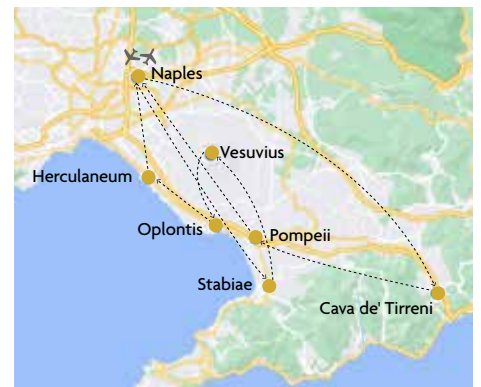

Two thousand years later, the sites of the Bay of Naples confront the modern visitor with a vivid, haunting immediacy like nothing else in the ancient world. In some cases, we even know the names, professions and personal histories of the people who owned the villas and shops we visit. The preservation of Herculaneum, Pompeii and its surrounding sites is remarkable and the archaeology is beyond compare, which is why we have been leading tours here for nearly 40 years. This is an exciting time for visitors to these Vesuvian towns, as new discoveries are constantly being made, and new areas of excavation are opened up. Walk as the Romans did, from amphitheatre to baths to forum, as our Guide Lecturer conjures an evocative picture of the everyday life of these prosperous Roman towns.

Enjoy visits to off-the-beaten-track villas at Stabiae

Private access to the Cave of Sejanus (Grotta di Seiano) and the adjoining Villa of Pausilypon with its dramatic coastal views

Visit newly excavated houses in Pompeii

Day One | UK - Cava de' Tirreni

Today we fly from London Heathrow to Naples and then we transfer to our hotel on arrival.

Day Two | Cava de' Tirreni - Paestum

Our day begins with a visit to the fascinating site at Paestum, ancient Poseidonia. Long before the Romans came, this was a thriving Greek city that was part of greater Greece from the 6th century BCE. After lunch, we discover glorious Greek temples here. We then visit the Paestum Museum, famed for its archaic metopes and painted tombs, including the wonderful Tomb of the Diver, dating to circa 480 BCE. We have also arranged special access to the magnificent Store Rooms of Paestum, where we see artefacts usually hidden from view

Day Three | Pompeii

We devote the entire day to Pompeii. No other site compares in revealing details of daily life in a Roman town. We visit some of the most well-preserved buildings and the amphitheatre, theatre, forum, bath-houses, bars and even brothels. Fountains in the street are worn from where countless people rested their hands to take a drink and Roman graffiti can still be seen on the walls. Travelling via the best routes to avoid the crowds, we visit some houses that are newly reopened to the public.

Day Four | Naples - Pozzuoli

Our first visit of the day is to the National Archaeological Museum in Naples, home to an exceptional collection of artefacts and an essential complement to exploring the archaeological sites of Pompeii and Herculaneum. Highlights include the famous Alexander Mosaic, the Bronze Runners and the Farnese Bull, carved from a single block of marble, the largest ancient sculpture ever recovered. After lunch we move on to Pozzuoli where we explore the Flavian amphitheatre, one of Italy's largest Roman arenas. Later, we have arranged private access to the Cave of Sejanus, a monumental tunnel dating to the age of Augustus, which leads to the lovely seaside villa of Pausilypon the summer house of an elite Roman, Publius Vedius Pollio. Much of the villa has been lost to the sea but its amphitheatre, odeon, gardens and other structures still are visible.

Day Five | Stabiae

Today we venture off the beaten-track to the villas of Stabiae, an exclusive Roman resort for the very wealthy. The vast Villa San Marco, with its swimming pool and bath complex, is one of the most opulent along this coast and it remains impressive in its scale. We will also visit the Villa Arianna, with its wonderful frescoes and fabulous views over the Bay of Naples. After lunch, we visit the Archaeological Museum of Castellammare di Stabia Libero D'Orsi, which opened in September 2020 specifically for the exhibition of the many important items found in the region of Stabia. There are a large number of finds on display, some never before exhibited in Italy, including frescoes, inlaid floors, stuccoes, sculptures and tableware.

Day Six | Herculaneum

This morning, we head to Herculaneum, which perfectly complements a visit to Pompeii. This seaside city was buried to a significantly greater depth than Pompeii - under 23 metres of pyroclastic to be exact - perfectly preserving everyday objects as well as houses up to their rooftops. In addition to the site, we explore the Antiquarium, newly opened after 44 years, which houses precious articles found along Herculaneum's seafloor, including a well-preserved boat. After lunch, we visit Boscoreale to explore Villa Regina, discovered in the late 20th century while digging for the foundations of council housing. In contrast to the opulent villas we have seen on other days, this is a modest small holding which provides us with evidence of how ordinary people lived. Boscoreale is a locality north of Pompeii located on the slopes of Vesuvius, identified by some with the Pagus Augustus Felix Suburbanus. With the inauguration of the Great Pompeii, in October 2023, the Antiquarium of Boscoreale was reopened with a room dedicated to the excavations underway in the suburban villa of Civita Giuliana, with the ceremonial chariot found there in 2021.

Day Seven | Vesuvius - Oplontis

Today, we ascend to the great volcanic crater of Vesuvius. The majority of our journey is by bus, but the final part requires a walk of around 30 - 40 minutes, which is well worth the effort. The walk starts at Monte Somma, the crater of the AD 79 eruption, where we grasp the scale of it. After the ascent and peering into the crater being forged since the ancient eruption, we see fumaroles and the layers of previous eruptions, while walking around the perimeter of the crater affords magnificent views over the Bay of Naples. On good days, you can even make out Pompeii. After lunch, we continue to the impressive villa at Oplontis, which boasts sumptuous frescoes, a bath complex, an enormous swimming pool and interesting slave quarters. This villa was supposedly owned by Emperor Nero and was destroyed and subsequently preserved by Vesuvius' eruption.

Day Eight | Naples - UK

After breakfast, our tour ends, and we catch our return flight back to London Heathrow.

Explore Turin's Egyptian Museum, home to one of the world's most important collections of antiquities outside Cairo

Visit the Royal Residences of the House of Savoy, including the splendid Palazzo Madama and La Venaria Reale

Discover the art treasures of Genoa's Strada Nuova Museums - Palazzi Rosso, Bianco and Doria Tursi

Day One | UK - Turin

We fly from London Heathrow to Milan, then transfer to Turin, capital of Piedmont and former seat of the House of Savoy.

Day Two | Turin

Our exploration of Turin begins with its Roman heritage at the Palatine Gate and Roman Theatre, remnants of Augusta Taurinorum. We visit the Cathedral of San Giovanni Battista, which houses the Chapel of the Holy Shroud, and Chiesa San Lorenzo, Guarino Guarini's masterpiece of baroque spatial geometry with its extraordinary intersecting arches and inventive dome. In the afternoon, we examine the Galleria Sabauda, the ducal picture gallery featuring works by Van Dyck, Veronese, and Guido Reni, and the Archaeological Museum, with its important Roman material from Piedmont.

Day Three | Turin

We spend the morning at Palazzo Madama, the medieval castle transformed into a baroque residence, now housing Turin's civic museum of ancient art with exceptional collections of ceramics, goldwork, and furniture. We also visit Palazzo Carignano, Guarini's baroque façade concealing the birthplace of Italian unification. The afternoon takes us to the Pinacoteca Giovanni and Marella Agnelli, a fascinating hanging structure on the roof of the Lingotto in Turin, the first great Fiat factory. Here the private collection of works on display include paintings by Matisse, Balla, Severini, Modigliani, Tiepolo, Canaletto and Bellotto.

Day Four | Turin

Today we explore the Egyptian Museum which contains the world's second-most important collection of pharaonic antiquities, established in 1824 with the acquisition of the Drovetti collection.

We examine statuary, papyri, tomb furnishings, and the remarkable finds from Deir el-Medina. In the afternoon, we visit the Villa della Regina, a hillside pleasure palace perched above the city. Recently reopened after extensive restoration, it is surrounded by Italian-style gardens complete with pavilions, water features, and newly revitalised agricultural terraces exemplifying the Savoy taste for villeggiatura.

Day Five | Turin - Genoa

Before leaving Turin, we visit La Venaria Reale, the magnificent hunting lodge and palace complex commissioned by Duke Charles Emmanuel II. Designed by Amedeo di Castellamonte and later enhanced by Juvarra, the palace demonstrates the Savoy dynasty's emulation of Versailles, with its grand galleries, chapel, and restored gardens. After lunch, we make our way south to Genoa, the former maritime republic arriving late this afternoon.

Day Six | Genoa

In Genoa, we begin at Palazzo Reale, the seventeenth-century residence of the Balbi family. This spectacular estate overlooks the sea with terraces and gardens and decorated by the best artists of the time. Inside, a sequence of frescoed and decorated rooms culminates in the grandiose Hall of Mirrors and lavish picture gallery. Next we explore the Strada Nuova Museums: Palazzo Rosso, with its Genoese baroque interiors and paintings by Veronese, Dürer, and Van Dyck; Palazzo Bianco, housing Flemish and Italian masterpieces including Caravaggio's Ecce Homo; and Palazzo Doria Tursi, the grandest of the street's palaces, where we see Paganini's violin and Genoese decorative arts.

YOUR EXPERT GUIDE

Dr Eireann Marshall

An Honorary Research Fellow for the Open University, Eireann has led many Andante tours. She won the Top History and Culture Guide prize at Wanderlust magazine's 2019 World Guide Awards.

Day Seven | Genoa

This morning we visit the extraordinary Cathedral of San Lorenzo, with its striking striped Gothic façade and treasury containing the Sacro Catino, once believed to be the Holy Grail. Begun in the 12th century and completed over several centuries, it reflects Genoa's evolving artistic connections across the Mediterranean. Next we visit the nearby Basilica of Santa Maria del Castello perched on the ancient hill that once formed the heart of Genoa's medieval settlement. This site offers a quieter but no less compelling counterpart to the city's grander churches and inside lie refined fresco cycles by the Lombard masters and a notable wooden cloister that speaks to the site's monastic past. The afternoon is free to explore Genoa's historic centre independently.

Day Eight | Milan - UK

We transfer to Milan Airport for our return flight to London Heathrow.

Carthage & Roman Tunisia

Stand before the mighty ancient amphitheatre of El Djem

10 DAYS FROM £3,695pp

Moderate ●●○

A land where dramatic events shaped ancient history - the superpowers of Carthage and Rome clashed in three Punic Wars, which determined the course of Western history. Lasting over 100 years, this conflict destroyed Carthage and assured Roman ascendancy. Superb sites and changing landscapes, from rolling hills and olive groves to sparkling sea, make this an excellent tour.

Visit the incredible El Djem amphitheatre, Africa's largest and best preserved

Gaze upon some of the world's most impressive mosaics at the Bardo, Sousse and El Djem museums

Tour a selection of little-known sites, including Mustis and Ain Tounga as well as the Bulla Regia

Day One | UK - Tunis

Today we fly from London Gatwick to Tunis.

Day Two | Carthage

Today is devoted to Carthage, now a wealthy suburb of Tunis, but scattered with the remains of this once great Phoenician city. We start our day at Byrsa Hill, once the citadel and a central feature of the Punic settlement. Next, we continue to Salambo Tophet and Cothon, or harbour, a testament to Carthage's famous maritime might, the Roman Antonine Baths.

Day Three | Tunis

We visit the renowned Bardo Museum, housed in a historic Beylical palace. It features one of the world's top mosaic collections, including the Virgil and Odysseus mosaics. Later, we head south of Tunis to examine a section of the Carthage aqueduct at Jebel Oust, then explore Oudna, a city founded by Emperor Augustus.

Day Four | Dougga

We drive west to Dougga stopping at Testour, a 17th-century town established by Jewish and Muslim people fleeing the Inquisition. After lunch, we explore Dougga, its bathhouses, sanctuaries, theatre and temples.

Day Five | Chemtou - Bulla Regia

We drive to Chemtou in the Tunisian hills where we see the quarries which produced famous Numidian marble. Next we visit nearby Bulla Regia and its well-preserved subterranean houses.

Day Six | Dougga - Kairouan

We head southwest to the charming site of Thuburbo Majus, originally Punic and later a Roman veteran colony. Highlights include the forum with the Capitulum, Winter and Summer Baths, the Palaestra of Petronius and a notable latrine. We also visit Punic-flavoured temples: the Temple of Baalit and the Temple of Caelestis. In the afternoon, we travel to Kairouan, Tunisia's key religious city, founded by the Umayyads in the 7th century AD.

Day Seven | El Djem

Heading southeast to El Djem, originally the Numidian city Thysdrus, we find a wealthy olive oil hub in the 2nd century AD. Next, we visit the Museum of El Djem, showcasing Tunisia's finest mosaics and Roman townhouse foundations in its gardens. Returning to Kairouan, we explore the Great Mosque and wander through the Medina's winding streets, shops and courtyard houses.

Day Eight | Kairouan - Hammamet

We start in Kairouan at the viewpoint over the Aghlabid pools, 9th-century reservoirs once praised by Arab geographers for their grandeur. Next, we visit the Barber Mosque, the burial site of Abu Zama El Belaoui. In the afternoon, we head north to Sousse. The Sousse Museum showcases exceptional mosaics, especially from the Roman period when Hadrumetum thrived through trade. We then continue north to Hammamet.

Day Nine | Kerkouane

We travel along the Cap Bon coastline to Kerkouane, a UNESCO-listed site from the 7th to 3rd century BCE, abandoned after the First Punic War. We visit the site museum with remains from the necropolis. After lunch, we head to Nabeul to visit its small museum before returning to the hotel.

Day Ten | Hammamet - Tunis - UK

We return to Tunis airport for our onward flight to London Gatwick.

Day Eight | Sumhuram, Wadi Darbat & Mirbat

Our day begins at Khor Rori Creek and Sumhuram, a former capital of the frankincense trade. After visiting the museum, we head to Wadi Darbat for lunch, enjoying views of waterfalls, lakes, and wildlife. Our journey into Shetland's archaeological wonders begins at Mousa Broch on the uninhabited island and RSPB reserve bearing its name, just off Shetland's mainland. After disembarking at the jetty, a short walk along the shore leads us to the broch, an imposing structure standing 13 metres tall and built around 3000 BCE. Originally featuring wooden floors, accessible by stairways still intact, this site is a testament to ancient ingenuity. We visit the Underhoull site, where excavations reveal the evolution of a longhouse with outhouses, annexes and drains, possibly featuring a mezzanine level. Our journey continues to Haroldswick to see the Skidbladner replica ship and reconstructed longhouse. The afternoon drive towards Skaw offers a view of the Muckle Flugga lighthouse at Unst's northern tip. After lunch in Lerwick, we visit Clickhimin Iron Age Broch and wheelhouse, followed by a drive to the Scord of Brouster, a Neolithic farm site excavated in the 1970s. We continue to Stanydale Temple, an extraordinary structure resembling Malta's megalithic temples, with origins between 2500-2000 BCE.
